THE MSW CURRICULUM

The essential purpose of the Master of Social Work (MSW) Program is to prepare graduate students for advanced and specialist practice in social work. The curriculum is designed to prepare students to develop competence and leadership as professionals in work with varied vulnerable populations and $U \times$ \H $L = L \circ U \setminus \circ = 2$ $h U \circ U \circ U + j \times X + j + j + j + U \wedge U \circ O + 2$ individuals, families, groups, communities, and organizations; human behavior; and social policy.

 $2 - \frac{1}{2}$ "or divertisity,:proputation as at-risk, social and economic justice, social work research methods, and values and ethics is integrated throughout the curriculum. The signature pedagogy and central part of professional social work education is the "practicum" which is Latin for "practical training"
